Conference FAQs

Q. What is the process for submitting a presentation?
A. Presentation submittal guidelines can be found under Call for Presentations.
http://cio.energy.gov/documents/Call_for_Presentations.pdf

Q. What date will the call for presentations close?
A. February 13, 2009

Q. When will I know if my paper was accepted?
A. Potential presenters will be notified by March 6, 2009.

Q. How technical will the sessions be?
A. Plenary and break-out sessions will feature topics ranging from Introductory, Intermediate to Advanced.

Q. Will onsite registration be available at the conference?
A. Attendees are strongly encouraged to register online at http://cio.energy.gov/csc_conference.htm. However, there will be on-site registration available.

Q. Does the hotel offer shuttle service to and from the airport?
A. The hotel does not provide a shuttle. Ground transportation options are available at http://www.mccarran.com/03_index.asp

Q. Is there a dress code for the conference?
A. Business casual is recommended.

Q. What is the weather like in Henderson in May?
A. In May the averages are highs in the mid to upper 80s and lows in the 60s.

Q. Will a CISSP exam be offered during the conference?
A. No, there will not be an exam this year.

Q. Do any of the track presentations qualify for CEUs?
A. No.

Q. Are there any track sessions that require pre-registration?
A. Yes, there will be one classified session held off-site (details TBD). This will require pre-registration and each attendee must bring his/her DOE badge.